

MAR
10
2009

Performance Tax HOT 100

Radio is where listeners discover new music and new artists. It's where the artists you love got their big breaks. But the record labels are pushing a bill that would levy a fee, or "performance tax," on the music local radio plays. That means radio stations will inevitably play less music and stop taking chances on unknown artists. The performance tax – bad for radio, bad for music.

THIS WEEK	LAST WEEK	WEEKS ON	TITLE	PRODUCER, RECORD LABEL	THIS WEEK	LAST WEEK	WEEKS ON
1	1	52			1	1	52
2	2	52			2	2	52
3	3	52			3	3	52
4	4	52			4	4	52
5	5	52			5	5	52
6	6	52			6	6	52
7	7	52			7	7	52
8	8	52			8	8	52
9	9	52			9	9	52
10	10	52			10	10	52
11	11	52			11	11	52
12	12	52			12	12	52
13	13	52			13	13	52
14	14	52			14	14	52
15	15	52			15	15	52
16	16	52			16	16	52

WHAT THE WEEKLY HOT 100 LIST MIGHT LOOK LIKE IF THERE WAS A PERFORMANCE TAX ON RADIO.

