Re: Ex Parte Comments of Learfield Communications, Inc.

Introduction of Unlicensed Devices in the "White Spaces"
ET Docket No. 04-186

Dear Chairman Martin and Commissioners Adelstein, Copps, McDowell and Tate:

Learfield Communications, Inc., a diverse media enterprise that manages multi-media rights for thirty-five (35) college athletic programs and provides news programming to hundreds of radio stations, supports the June 26, 2007 comments filed by the SPORTS TECHNOLOGY ALLIANCE in the above-referenced docket. We are pleased to produce sports broadcasts for the following NCAA Division One athletic programs:

Alabama Crimson Tide
Army Black Knights
Black Coaches Association
Bowling Green Falcons
Clemson Tigers
Colorado Buffaloes
Fresno State Bulldogs
Idaho Vandals
Indiana Hoosiers
Iowa Hawkeyes
Iowa State Cyclones
Kansas State Wildcats
Maine Black Bears
Memphis Tigers
Miami Hurricanes
Minnesota Golden Gophers

Missouri Tigers
Montana Grizzlies
Montana State Bobcats
New Mexico Lobos
Nevada Wolf Pack
North Carolina Tar Heels
Oklahoma Sooners
Oregon State Beavers
Penn State Nittany Lions
Purdue Boilermakers
San Diego State Aztecs
San Jose State Spartans
South Carolina Gamecocks
Stanford Cardinals
Texas A&M Aggies
Toledo Rockets
Tulsa Golden Hurricanes
Utah State Aggies
Wisconsin Badgers
Wyoming Cowboys

As noted in the ALLIANCE filing, sports programming relies extensively on wireless microphones and related audio equipment in its production and distribution. Therefore, due to our reliance on wireless technology in producing broadcasts for the above schools' athletic programs, we urge the Commission to not allow unlicensed personal portable devices to operate in the broadcast spectrum. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,
